The gift of light

The winter months offer a precious opportunity for reflection and rest, granting us permission to move at a more deliberate pace. In the tranquility of this season, we can discern what to carry forward into the coming year and what to release from the past. While the chilly, dim days may not seem inviting, the true beauty of winter lies in its potential to become the warmest and most vibrant season of all. Remember, darkness isn't the absence of color; it's the presence of all colors. Amidst this rich tapestry of darkness, we have the power to choose the palette with which we'll paint our radiant and promising future.

This season we ask you to support the women of Jubilee as they paint a new path forward.

As you contemplate how to share your warmth and kindness, we ask that you support Jubilee Women's Center with a year-end donation. While we deeply appreciate this generosity, we also offer a variety of ways to contribute to our mission, ensuring your extraordinary impact.

Thank you!
